being studied at this time?	By term 3 German Y7 pupils will be more adept at manipulating the language they have learnt to be more independent and again we teach them a very relatable topic – free time and activities. Once again being able to describe their own world in another language is empowering and engaging – pupils want to give their opinions on what they like doing in their own time. Being able to describe their lives both inside and How does it fit	outside of school enables them to give a fuller picture of themselves. We compare and contrast German free time and British free time activities. We look at German music and the differences in culture between the U.K. and Germany, as well as German- speaking countries like subject curriculum?	Austria and Süd-Tirol.

	In this final term, students begin to use longer sequences of language, developing their ability to narrate events, doing this in a foreign language is both empowering and fun! To give an even fuller pictures of their lives students build on basic description by expressing and justifying opinions, a key skill which they will continue to develop throughout their language learning experience. This builds their general oracy and confidence in themselves.
