Dear Parent/Carer/Student,

RWS Scholars Programme

I am writing to inform you of the next two seminars in our RWS Scholars Series. As outlined in previous correspondence, these talks are designed to promote Awe and Wonder in our curriculum and promote our school ethos of 'Learn, Lead, Excel'. Please see further information below:

Wednesday 9th November – BBC Share Your Story

'BBC100 Share Your Story' is part of the BBC's centenary celebrations, where guest speakers plan to visit around 400 secondary schools across the UK, reaching approx. 400,000 students. In each session a carefully selected BBC Ambassador will share their inspirational journey with students, in a bid to inspire them through the power of storytelling. We are delighted to inform you that we have two BBC journalists coming to speak to our students about their careers and how they overcame hurdles along the way and students will also have the opportunity to ask questions. They will be accompanied by a BBC production team who will be filming the event.

This particular seminar will take place during students' timetabled silent study session in the Main Hall. These will be compulsory for all students to attend and there will be signing in sheets at the back of the Main Hall.

Wednesday 23rd November - Tim Craddock | HR Director, Network Rail

Tim is the HR Director, Eastern Region for Network Rail. Tim will be delivering a seminar on the rail industry, how it has changed over the years and how his career in this industry started and taken him to where he is today. A Microsoft Form will be sent to all students via their school email to confirm their attendance in due course.

Yours sincerely,

Mr N McCartney
