

English Language and Literature

Pre-Course Task

Mrs S Doggett De Frayne – sdf@rws.uk.net

Task and Resources Required

Task

Read and work through the travel- writing booklet attached, highlighting and annotating the information you need to know about style, structure and language choices.

Select a place or a country you have visited this year if possible, but if not, somewhere you have visited previously and produce two pieces of writing:

- a) A piece of your own travel writing that follows the suggested rules and conventions you have learnt about through reading the booklet
- b) A one-page reflection of what you have written about and where and how you have applied the different language, structure and form conventions you have learnt about – you can quote your words to give clear and specific examples and it might also be useful to highlight these references on your piece of original writing

Resources

- 1. Travel writing booklet

Book and task list for September

Please acquire the suggested editions (check the ISBN number). This makes group reading and page referencing much more straightforward.

The Bloody Chamber by Angela Carter – ISBN 9780099588115

A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams – ISBN 0141182563

A Room with a View by E M Forster – ISBN 9780141199825

Please purchase a large folder and some dividers to sort into different texts, resources and pieces of work. Create your first division 'Induction and bridging' and place today's resources as well as those from the previous two lessons.

We hope you have enjoyed the induction process. Happy reading and writing – we look forward to seeing you in September!
